

Beaverton Police

MEDIA RELEASE

Release Date: 12 July 2004

Follow-up Contact: Officer Paul Wandell

Office Phone: 526-2275

Digital Pager: 229-1617

Beaverton Police Dept.
David G. Bishop, Chief
4755 S.W. Griffith Drive
P.O. Box 4755
Beaverton, OR 97076-4755
(503) 526-2260
Fax # (503) 526-2541

During the July 11th City Council meeting, eight new hires were sworn in as police officers.

Nicholas W. Coplin is 27 years old and holds a BS Degree in Administration of Justice from Portland State University. Coplin was an Assistant Operations Officer with the US Marine Corps Reserve. Coplin is married with one child.

Bryan J. Dalton is 28 years and is married with two children. Dalton was a sergeant with the Public Safety Department at Concordia University prior to coming to Beaverton. He received his college education at Concordia University.

Ryan J. Garbutt is 24 years old and has a BA Degree in Law Enforcement from Western Oregon University. Garbutt was a security officer at the Oregon Zoo prior to joining the Beaverton Police Department. He is single.

Gregory A. Gottschalk is 28 years old and has a BA Degree in Criminal Justice from Marylhurst University. Gottschalk was a police officer with the Woodburn Police Department prior to coming to Beaverton. He is married with one child.

Michael J. Hanada is 24 years old and has a BA Degree in Communication from Lewis & Clark College. Hanada was a web developer at Lewis & Clark College and was a reserve officer for the Beaverton Police Department before accepting a sworn position. He is married with no children.

Jessica T. Hull is 26 years old and has a BA Degree in Sociology from the University of St. Thomas. Hull was an administrative assistant with Aitchison & Vick before joining the police department. She is married with one child.

University of St. Thomas. Hull was an administrative assistant with Aitchison & Vick before joining the police department. She is married with one child.

Michael P. Smith is 29 years old and holds a BS Degree in Psychology from Oregon State University. Smith was a computer programmer with Program This! before joining the police department. He is married with no children.

Christopher R. Warren is 24 years old and received his college education at Portland Community College. Warren was a patrol officer with First Response and served as a reserve officer for the Beaverton Police Department. Warren is single.

Chief David G. Bishop stated “The swearing in ceremony will be the start of a promising career for these new officers as they work with the citizens of Beaverton to ensure a safe community”.